What else can we do? Acceptance is the only way we will move forward. You ask what else can we do to help others? It's hard for the family to imagine a world without mine. Everyone remembers how active and hard working you were before and imagine that to be gone now. You no longer fulfill the family, and we just need your help. To anyone who works in an office or factory, you know what it's like. You have a good job and you get it done, but it's really hard not to think about it. I don't want anyone to go through this because of me. All your loved ones want you to be around and to have your independent moments back. Maybe we can get your sisters and brothers to start driving you around in a shopping cart. That way, you can have your independence, but you can still be around and know that someone loves you. You will be with us for a long time. The best thing we can do now is have your loved ones join you in your bed and care for you like you've never been cared for before. They will realize how hard you worked to get to this place and that's why I love you so much. I wish you could be with us right now and feel the power that we have now. We will always remember you and what we are missing. I just hope that you are at peace and know that you are loved. I know that you hate being sick and I know that you want to go back to work. You will never be able to do that for the rest of your life. We will get through this, but we will also need your help and it's hard to ask for help. I just want you to know that I will do my best to make you want to do it 3e33713323
