I think what is most impressive about the game is not just the visuals but the interesting battles, UI/user-interface and the most important of all, the enjoyable character development; I don't think there is a huge genre that allows you to grow as a character over time. It's incredibly important, because that kind of stuff, whether to create a respectable character or just a lazy bastard NPC, can make a

1/7 GameSpot "For all the hype about Rage 2, Tarnished is probably the best looking game in this genre, and I don't think it's being hyperbolic to say that it's the best looking fantasy game in years." -GameSpot [Review] Tarnished Gameplay Rage 2, for all its technical prowess and gorgeous world, falls behind in terms of the game experience. Tarnished is a fun fantasy adventure game with a well-designed battle system. [Review] Tarnished Gameplay Tarnished isn't quite as satisfying as the real-time RPG genre can be. But it has an imaginative world, great visuals, and a beautiful soundtrack that more than makes up for the few stiff spots. -Polygon [Review] Tarnished Gameplay "The gameplay is the most important thing here, and Tarnished nails it: It's a great fantasy action RPG that delivers huge, satisfying, and surprising fights and a deep class-based skill tree." -Destructoid [Review] Tarnished Gameplay "Tarnished is not a perfect action roleplaying game, but it's definitely fun, has a unique setting, and does a better job of presenting the story than some more popular games out there." -Gamerky [Review] Tarnished Gameplay A charming and exhilarating action game with a fantasy setting. -PCMag.com [Review] Tarnished Gameplay "The combat doesn't have the depth that we've come to expect from big fantasy titles, but it's just more fun to play than anything that we've seen this generation." -Ars Technica [Review] Tarnished Gameplay It's not so much a traditional "dark fantasy" role-playing game, but more a bold, attractive take on a fantasy setting. -Console Ambassadors [Review] Tarnished Gameplay "Rage 2 isn't a great game, but it's an impressive technical achievement. Tarnished isn't just gorgeous; it's a fun bff6bb2d33
